GEORGE BAYNES)	MOTION FOR HEARING
)	ON TRANSFER TO A MEDICAL
DEFENDANT)	FACILITY

Defendant George Baynes now moves for a hearing on the matter of relocating him to a secure medical facility for the remainder of his pretrial detention.¹ The reason for this motion is that Defendant suffers several medical conditions that he feels are not being treated adequately at Core Civic Correctional Facility in Youngstown. Defendant believes that his condition has deteriorated to the point that a sufficient change in circumstances dictates reconsideration by the court of the type his pretrial detention.

Defendant does not wish to attach medical records to this motion and wishes to present such records and information to the court at hearing.

For the foregoing reasons, Defendant requests that the court hold a hearing on whether he should be released to a medical facility for the remainder of his pretrial detention.

Respectfully submitted,
